

Savvy Savers Assembly

A high energy informative assembly which gets young people thinking about saving and what banks do with their money

Through audience participation, props and projector visuals, young people are introduced to the topics of:

- ⓔ Why to bother saving
- ⓔ What to save for (needs v. wants, short term v. long term goals)
- ⓔ Tips for saving
- ⓔ Shopping for a high street bank that suits your needs
- ⓔ What banks do with your money (including bank ethical policies)

Key facts

Format:	30 minute assembly
Target group:	Junior school, secondary school and college students, with content tailored as appropriate
Group size:	Up to 200 young people
Price:	£160

Tracking the spending habits of a volunteer 'savvy saver' and a 'big spender', students come away with:

1. A saving goal
2. A personal tip for saving
3. What they might want from a bank

The Savvy Saver Assembly is an ideal way to kick start saving as part of a MyBnk-in-a-Box branch, or as an independent session. It can be delivered to young people from junior schools (years 5 & 6), secondary schools and colleges (content detail is tailored for each group).

Case Study

Charter School in Southwark, a Business and Enterprise Specialist School, wanted to increase their Year 9's financial capability and so took part in a Savvy Savings Assembly. The Head of Year proclaimed it to be:

"The best assembly I've ever seen!"
